

AHB6600

HAND BLENDER

OVERVIEW

An easier, more efficient, and handier way of blending your favorite vegetables and fruits. Aztech AHB6600 Hand Blender, a member of Aztech Home's Silvertone Series, makes way to a light and fuss-free way of blending and/or pureeing your much loved soups, drinks, ingredients, toppings, and a whole lot more.

Enclosed in a plastic body with a stainless steel finish, the Aztech AHB6600 is made perfectly lightweight and ergonomic to use. The appliance is designed to maximize overall control and comfort while ensuring that your selected ingredients are consistently blended / pureed to perfection according to your desired textures. With its Two Speed Settings (Low and Turbo) feel free to use the appropriate setting that best suits your needs or add additional speed options using its Variable Speed Adjustment Dial which allows you to tweak the hand blender's speed gradually (from low speed setting). Unlike other hand blenders, the Aztech AHB6600 has a detachable blending rod design which enables you to (a) have more options in storing your appliance and (b) perform quick appliance cleaning.
